ONE: CITYWIDE PRAYER AND WORSHIP

ONE

The Kingdom of God has no walls, no borders, no locked doors. Men, women, and children of all ethnicities, backgrounds, and theological belief are united under a common mission and a common King, in Jesus.

And it's as this flawed—often broken and dysfunctional—but redeemed family that we join together and pray, as Jesus taught, that God's will would be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

One is a gathering of the Church in Portland, Oregon to pray for our city, our neighborhoods, our communities, and for one another. Look forward to a new gathering in a new location around the city every few months.
